II. Introduction

This notice informs the public of FHFA–OIG’s proposal to establish and maintain a new system of records. This notice satisfies the Privacy Act requirement that an agency publish a system of records notice in the Federal Register when establishing a new or making a significant change to an agency’s system of records. Congress has recognized that application of all requirements of the Privacy Act to certain categories of records may have an undesirable and often unacceptable effect upon agencies in the conduct of necessary public business. Consequently, Congress established general exemptions and specific exemptions that could be used to exempt records from provisions of the Privacy Act. Congress also required that exempting records from provisions of the Privacy Act would require the head of an agency to publish a determination to exempt a record from the Privacy Act as a rule in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. Records and information in this system of records are not exempt from the requirements of the Privacy Act.

As required by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), and pursuant to section 7 of Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A–108, “Federal Agency Responsibilities for Review, Reporting, and Publication under the Privacy Act,” prior to publication of this notice, FHFA–OIG submitted a report describing the system of records covered by this notice to the OMB, the Committee on Oversight and Accountability of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate.

III. New System of Records

The information in this system of records will be used by FHFA–OIG to process and track legal opinions/advice, administrative hearings, litigation, and other legal projects and assignments, for FHFA–OIG’s Office of Counsel. The new system of records is described in detail below.

SYSTEM NAME AND NUMBER:

Office of Counsel Legal Matters System, FHFA–OIG–9.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Office of Inspector General, Federal Housing Finance Agency, 400 Seventh Street SW, Washington, DC 20219, and any alternate work site used by employees of FHFA–OIG and contractors assisting agency employees.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S):

Chief Counsel, Office of Counsel, (202) 649–3065, Office of Inspector General, Federal Housing Finance Agency, 400 Seventh Street SW, Washington, DC 20219.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

12 CFR 1200.1 through 1200.2; 5 U.S.C. 301; 5 U.S.C. 402 through 403; 12 U.S.C. 4517(d); and 44 U.S.C. 3101.

PURPOSE(S) OF THE SYSTEM:

The purpose of this system is to support the Inspector General and FHFA–OIG staff on legal matters related to the functions, activities, operations, and employees of FHFA–OIG. In addition, the system of records may be used to track the status, progress, and disposition of matters assigned to the legal staff, generate reports about any past or planned activities for each matter, and capture summary information (such as timelines, due dates, and work assignments). The system will also maintain historical reference information pertaining to such matters.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Individuals covered by this system are employees of and detailees to the Office of Counsel, assigned contractor personnel; parties, witnesses, subjects, complainants, and other persons involved in litigation, administrative actions, and other legal proceedings and activities conducted by FHFA-OIG.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Records maintained in this system include memoranda, personnel documents, litigation documents, and other legal records that may contain information such as the names, addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers for current or former FHFA-OIG employees and contractor personnel, as well as descriptions of the matters as provided by assigned FHFA-OIG staff. Records also may contain the names of individuals or companies and associated entities that are relevant to a matter, including parties, witnesses, agency employees, and agents of the entities that FHFA regulates, interagency partners, and may derive from pleadings and discovery materials generated in connection with civil proceedings or administrative actions, as well as correspondence or memoranda related to work assignments.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

The names, business email addresses, and business telephone numbers for FHFA-OIG employees and contractor personnel are obtained from the FHFA-OIG Active Directory. Records also are provided by the Office of Counsel employees and contractor personnel assigned to legal matters and may derive from pleadings or discovery materials in connection with civil proceedings or administrative actions, as well as correspondence or memoranda related to work assignments.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act, these records and the information contained therein may be disclosed outside of FHFA-OIG as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3) as follows, to the extent such disclosures are compatible with the purposes for which the information was collected:

(1) To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when—(a) FHFA-OIG suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (b) FHFA-OIG has determined that as a result of a suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, FHFA-OIG (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (c) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons as reasonably necessary to assist with FHFA-OIG's efforts to (i) respond to a suspected or confirmed breach or (ii) prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

(2) To another federal agency or federal entity, when FHFA-OIG determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in: (a) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or; (b) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or to national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

(3) When there is evidence of a violation or potential violation of law (whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute or by regulation, rule or order), the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency (e.g., federal, state, local, tribal, foreign, or a financial regulatory organization) charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violations or charged with enforcing or implementing a statute, rule, regulation, or order.

(4) To any individual during the course of an inquiry or investigation conducted by FHFA-OIG, or in connection with litigation, if FHFA-OIG has reason to believe the individual to whom the record is disclosed may have further information relevant to the inquiry, investigation, or litigation.

(5) To contractors, agents, or other authorized persons performing work on behalf of FHFA-OIG who have a need to access the information in the performance of their official duties or activities.

(6) To appropriate third parties contracted by FHFA-OIG to facilitate mediation or other dispute resolution procedures or programs.

(7) To outside counsel contracted by FHFA-OIG, the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) (including United States Attorney Offices), or other federal agencies conducting litigation or in proceedings before any court, adjudicative or administrative body, when it is relevant and necessary to the litigation and one of the following is a party to the litigation or has an interest in the litigation:

- a. FHFA-OIG;
- b. An employee of FHFA-OIG in his/her official capacity;
- c. An employee of FHFA-OIG in his/her individual capacity where DOJ or

FHFA-OIG has agreed to represent the employee; or

d. The United States or a federal agency, and FHFA-OIG determines that the records are relevant and necessary to the litigation and the use of the records is compatible with the purpose for which FHFA-OIG collected the records.

(8) To the National Archives and Records Administration or other federal agencies pursuant to records management inspections being conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

(9) To an agency, organization, or individual for the purpose of performing audit or oversight activities as authorized by law, but only such information as is relevant and necessary to such activities.

(10) To another federal Office of the Inspector General, law enforcement Task Force, or other federal, state, local, foreign, territorial, or tribal unit of government, other public authorities, or self-regulatory organizations for the purpose of preventing and/or identifying fraud, waste, or abuse related to FHFA's programs or operations.

(11) To other federal Offices of Inspector General or other entities, during the conduct of internal and external peer reviews of FHFA-OIG.

(12) To the public or to the media for release to the public when the matter under audit, review, evaluation, investigation, or inquiry has become public knowledge, or when the Inspector General determines that such disclosure is necessary either to preserve confidence in the integrity of FHFA-OIG's audit, review, evaluation, investigative, or inquiry processes or is necessary to demonstrate the accountability of FHFA-OIG employees, officers or individuals covered by the system, unless the Inspector General or his/her delegatee determines, after consultation with counsel and the Senior Privacy Official, that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(13) To Congress, congressional committees, or the staffs thereof, once an FHFA-OIG report or management alert has become final and the Inspector General determines that its disclosure is necessary to fulfill the Inspector General's responsibilities under the Inspector General Act of 1978.

(14) To a federal agency or other entity which requires information relevant to a decision concerning the hiring, appointment, or retention of an employee or contractor; the assignment, detail, or deployment of an employee or contractor; the issuance, renewal, suspension, or revocation of an employee's or contractor's security clearance; the execution of a security or suitability investigation; the adjudication of liability; or coverage under FHFA–OIG's liability insurance policy.

(15) To the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency and its committees, another federal Office of Inspector General, or other Federal law enforcement office in connection with an allegation of wrongdoing by the Inspector General or by designated FHFA–OIG staff members.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. 24–09]

Notice of Filing of Amended Complaint; TZ SSE Buyer, LLC, Complainant v. COSCO Shipping Lines Co., Ltd., Respondent

Served: October 17, 2024.

Notice is given that an amended complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (the "Commission") by TZ SSE Buyer, LLC (the "Complainant") against COSCO Shipping Lines Co., Ltd. (the "Respondent"). Complainant states that the Commission has jurisdiction over the amended complaint pursuant to 46 U.S.C. 41301 through 41309 and personal jurisdiction over the Respondent as an ocean common carrier, as defined in 46 U.S.C. 40102(18), that has entered into a service contract, as defined in 46 U.S.C. 40102(21), with the original complainants.

Complainant is a Delaware limited liability company with a principal place of business in Toledo, Ohio. Impact Products, LLC and Safety Zone, LLC (the "original complainants") filed the verified complaint in this proceeding on February 7, 2024, and subsequently filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy and sold the claims asserted in this proceeding to Complainant. The original complainants are shippers as this term is defined under 46 U.S.C. 40102(23) with offices in Ohio, Tennessee, and Connecticut, among other locations.

Complainant identifies Respondent as a company organized under the laws of China with its United States office located in Secaucus, New Jersey and as a global ocean carrier.

Complainant alleges that Respondent violated 46 U.S.C. 41102(c) and 41104(a)(10) and 46 CFR 545.5. Complainant alleges these violations arose from assessment of demurrage, detention, per diem, and yard storage charges during periods of time in which the charges were not just or reasonable because of circumstances outside the control of the original complainants and their agents and service providers, and from the acts or omissions of the Respondent that led to the assessment of these charges.

An answer to the amended complaint must be filed with the Commission as provided in Administrative Law Judge Alex M. Chintella's October 16, 2024, Order Granting Motion for Leave to File Second Amended Complaint. The full text of the amended complaint and this order can be found in the Commission's electronic Reading Room at <https://www2.fmc.gov/readingroom/proceeding/24-09/>.

The initial decision of the presiding judge shall be issued by February 14, 2025, and the final decision of the Commission shall be issued by August 29, 2025.

David Eng,

Secretary.
